

It is unconsciounable to think that the FCC would allow Sinclair media group to get away with this sort of electioneering. I realize that the FCC has strong ties through its leader to the Republican party, but no matter how Mr. Powell was appointed to his post, he has a duty to the American people to be a fair watchdog of this sort of activity.